LOOKING DEEPER INTO LATEST SINGLE "YOU ARE," BY SOLANGE LEGAL

Nov 19, 2024

(Port Coquitlam, BC) — "You Are" was released two weeks ago and already the song has played in 13 countries, on over 150 radio stations, inspiring listeners to reach out and share how the song is impacting them and their faith.

In the Old Testament God reveals Himself as "I am." Throughout scripture God is revealed as so many things, including faithful, holy, and righteous. This song responds, You are.

"Writing 'You Are' was like writing a love letter. Each word is special to me," said Solange.

Solange Legal's music and her work in Indigenous Reconciliation has connected her to various people, communities, churches, and schools where she continues to listen and be present, offering her story, her heart, and her music.

"My work has opened the door to a variety of opportunities to connect with people," said Solange. "I love these personal connections and am truly grateful when the gifts of presence and listening are shared."

"You Are" released on Nov 3 and will be followed by the release of Solange's first EP, "The Answer," in 2025.
